New Haven, June 30-President Taft | ident will reach the capital at 9.45 a. paused in the course of an after dinner speceh to eighteen hundred graduates of Yale gathered at the annual alumni feast today to issue a serious note of warning to congress and to the leaders of the republican party. The president declared that if the party which placed him in power and had control of the government for so many which placed him in power and had control of the government for so many years, failed now to live up to its promises and the expectations of the people, it would be relegated to the position of a minority opposition.

Impressive Words.

Mr. Taft had been speaking humorously and with many wittleisms on the position of the speaking humorously and with many wittleisms on York city.

Mr. Taft had been speaking of Secretary of War Dickinson, a democrat, upon whom Yale today conferred an honorary degree. He taunted the democracy, with the best of good humor as to its present day condition. humor, as to its present-day condition, and this led him into the declaration as to his own party, "Just to show," the president con-cluded amid laughter, "that we have troubles of our own."

A Busy and Interesting Day.

The president had a busy and in-teresting day, as the honor guest of the Yale commencement exercises. In can and gown he walked in the digni-can and gown he walked in the digni-fied procession of graduates, fellows sand faculty to the commencement cer-lemonies in Woolsey hall. He attended a meeting of the Yale corporation, spoke at the midday dinner of the salumni, presided over a meetin-held for the purpose or arranging for a meetin held tives of the Fart family in town today. The president, as the most distinguished member of the family, headed the both sides in the civil war, stood for list. Then came his brothess, Henry mearly two hours with President Hadden the Ley at the commencement reception, and rushed tonight from a meeting of Kull and Bones, to board his private car, which was attached to the midnight train for Washington. OFFICERS' TRAIN DERAILED ON FALLS SWITCH

Central Vermont Train Meets With Accident Wednesday Afternoon After Striking Hand Car.

About 5.38 o'cleck Wednesday afternoon the special train carrying the Central Vermont road officials struck a hand car just north of the tunnel at the Falls, it being on the main track and the workmen being unable to get it out of the way in time. The strik-ing of the car caused the switch to the siding to be thrown and the engine and car went onto the siding and plunged into the bank there, derailing the forward trucks, smashing the cowcatcher and doing some other small damage to the engine. No one was injured. It was replaced on the rails and proceeded south about 10 o'clock. As the ac-cident was on the siding the traffic was not delayed.
